

Conference Schedule

Day 2: Thursday 13th December 2007

Time	Session	Speaker	Topic	Room
9.00-9.45	Plenary 3	Edwin Thumboo	Creativity in the new Englishes: The circumference of meaning	Chamras Council Room
10.05-10.50	Parallel 4	Carolina Nuñez	Understanding ESL compositions: Should L1 conventions prevail?	LNG501
		Ursula Wall, Jonathan Hull and Wilaksana Srimavin	Using English as an international language in the local context	LNG502
		Zuraidah Mohd Don	Discourse of terrorism and the demonisation of the Other: A contesting voice in the public sphere	LNG504
		Alexander McAulay	Teacher-generated podcasts: Why? How? Is it worth it?	LNG505
		Kuei-Min Huang	Impact of content-based language instruction on EFL young learners' learning motivation and language development	LNG601
		Andy Kirkpatrick	How intelligible is Hong Kong speakers' English?	LNG604
		Jonathan Carreon	Preparing genre-based ESP lessons by recycling selected generic ESL materials	LNG606
10.50-11.15	Tea / Coffee			1 st & 6 th Floors
11.15-12.00	Parallel 5	Jackie Lee	Gender bias in the language of Australian and Hong Kong English language textbooks	LNG501
		Junifer Abatayo	A comparative study of linguistic politeness of Filipino and American female employees in a localized Philippine based setting	LNG502
		Tharinee Boonyuen	A comparison of real and media-based classroom discourse	LNG504
		Woravut Jaroongkhongdach and Sampan Jaihow	A case study of learning English through a chatroom: Room Toefl iBT 13	LNG601
		James Yang	Identity or intelligibility? A phonostatic analysis of English for international communication	LNG604
		Azirah Hashim and Richard Powell	Discourse of arbitration practice in Malaysia	LNG606
12.00-13.00	Lunch			1 st Floor & LNG101-103

Time	Session	Speaker	Topic	Room
13.00-13.45	Country 2	William Littlewood	Slippery paths towards unknown destinations? More questions than answers for EFL teachers in southeast Asia today	LNG505
		Margarita Orendain	Re-visiting issues of language and ideology, class and gender: an agenda for critical thinking in the ELT classroom	LNG604
		Stephen Bird	Defossilising non-standard syntactic forms?	LNG606
13.50-14.35	Parallel 6	Jose Parina	Individual differences in L2 proficiency tasks as a function of L2 and non-L2 specific dimensions	LNG501
		Roslyn Appleby	Gender politics and language teaching in East Timor	LNG502
		Fauziah Taib	Multimodality and genre: Clustering words and images in texts	LNG504
		Cynthia Lee, Kelvin Wong, Fion Lee, William Cheung, Anders Mørch, Juming Liu	Web-based critiquing system and EFL students' writing: A quantitative and qualitative investigation	LNG505
		Steve Graham	Writing, chemistry and the four skills: Trends and directions	LNG604
Leo Liang	Poetic tradition and transformation in Chinese translations of Alfred Tennyson's 'The Lady of Shallot'	LNG606
14.35-15.05	Tea / Coffee			1 st & 6 th Floors
15.05-15.50	Parallel 7	Linda Thompson	New ways of being bilingual	LNG501
		Nyoman Padmadewi	The language of men and women: A discourse analysis viewed from Balinese culture perspective	LNG502
		Maria Corazon Saturnina A. Castro	Let's chat : An analysis of the discourse features of synchronous chat in English	LNG504
		Peter Collins	The progressive aspect in South-East Asian and other Englishes	LNG601
		Mitaka Yoneda	Needs analysis of English for business purposes: Japanese expatriate workers in Singapore	LNG604
		Aileen Salonga	Gender and call center discourse in the Philippines	LNG606

Poster Sessions

During lunch and breaks	Punjaborn Pojanapunya	Observation of student behaviour in a non-formal EFL classroom setting	1 st Floor
	Kwong Wing Yee	Using writing to generate online participation	1 st Floor